

PRESS RELEASE

GSE AMERICA COMPLETES ACQUISITION OF MIDWEST HOME SERVICES PROVIDER

May 1st, 2023

GSE Home Services of America LLC. (dba Insulate My Home), a leading provider of residential energy efficiency services has acquired the assets of a multi-market family owned residential insulation business with a significant footprint across the middle western United States. Through this acquisition GSE America expands its operating presence to major metropolitan areas throughout Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, Arkansas, Kansas and Nebraska. These new locations will be branded as Insulate My Home locations and subsequently offer the full depth & breadth of efficiency solutions homeowners have to come to expect and value.

Sean Polce, President of GSE America, adds, "We are excited to add these high-quality locations to our business. Insulate My Home has an excellent reputation in the markets in which it operates, and we intend to continue our leadership in this very important segment and continue to bring real energy improvements to as many American households as possible."
